Being an 'evangelist'?

An evangelist for John, the 4th evangelist is the one who becomes a witness and shares the good news with greater enthusiasm so as to make others believers and doers of the message. Be that said, the woman in the scene became the first evangelist, not only to her native Samaritan community then but more emphatically to every reader now who dwells deep into reflecting this gospel episode.

The path to become such an ardent evangelist is long but not tiring, more challenging and strenuous but never without a reward. The long dialogue between Jesus and the woman in broad daylight brought her to insight and enlightenment of not only to come to terms with her cracked and broken life but also to begin a new journey of conviction and clarity to powerfully evangelize her community.

We did embark on the path of evangelization at the graceful moment of Baptism and it continues till the last breath of our lives, with no turning back, come what may. It is in becoming the gospel bearers and sharers that we can reach the goal of our mission – making everyone Christ-like and filling the earth with His Spirit.

Fr. Amal

HOW TO FAST

The fast of Lent has no advantage to us unless it brings about our spiritual renewal. It is necessary while fasting to change our whole life and practice virtue.

Turning away from all wickedness means:

- keeping our tongue in check,
- restraining our anger,
- avoiding all gossip, lying and swearing.

To abstain from these things— herein lies the true value of the fast.
