Vision leading into mission

The man who longed to have a vision of the risen Lord, which the ten male-disciples and Mary Magdalene the female-disciple claimed to have, was commissioned by the same Lord to stretch himself to a foreign land to become a missionary. He did not allow the doubt to hold him down rather grew stronger in his conviction of the all-pervading presence of the Lord to fetch him strength and stamina to forge ahead.

Seemingly it is interesting to know that Thomas did not touch Jesus, though initially he had it as a condition to believe, but Jesus touched him and transformed him completely in order for us to learn a lesson of faith – putting things in perspective of the risen Lord who is with us always. It serves as a compelling invitation for each of us to become true witnesses of ‘believing-without-seeing’ faith.

Thomas transported Christ, the Lord who hides himself behind broken bread and blessed wine at our Eucharist, to India. Where do we see Jesus and where do we take him to? Besides exulting in the expression of faith in words and actions by Thomas, let us also exclaim, “My Lord and My God!” every time divine manifestations are given us, everywhere.

Fr. Amal

Catholic Daughters

In spite of the weather, The Catholic Daughters Rummage Sale was a success because so many of you helped us!

A huge thanks to those Parish Members who donated, helped set up and take down, shopped and supported us in any way. A special thanks to all our CDA members who accepted yet another challenge and worked tirelessly to make our sale a great one. We would not have been as successful without everyone's participation.

God Bless you all
 Kathie Graves—Regent and CDA Members.

Divine Mercy
 With My mercy, I pursue sinners along all their paths, and My Heart rejoices when they return to Me. I forget the bitterness with which they fed My Heart and rejoice at their return. Tell sinners that no one shall escape My Hand; if they run away from My Merciful Heart, they will fall into My Just Hands. Tell sinners that I am always waiting for them, that I listen intently to the beating of their heart... When will it beat for Me?
 —Jesus speaking in the Diary of St Faustina
