'Shepherding'

Jesus presents himself as the shepherd with a difference. More than the arduous job of tending the sheep through tough and challenging pastures of life, it is the knowledge of his sheep with a special attention to the strayed ones, that stands out in this 'Good Shepherd'.

Shepherding at various levels – as parents, teachers, mentors, friends, church and social leaders – is indeed a demanding task. Being after them does make us assertive leaders; but the radical call is to 'be with them' to mold their character and nurture their growth to maturity. It is not enough for the shepherds to sermonize and sing about the Shepherd; rather we must know and emulate him.

Traditionally, the fourth Sunday of Easter is observed as the Vocation Sunday. While we constantly coerce the children to slog for 'big jobs' – doctors, engineers and lawyers, do we inquire about the quest for opting to serve the Church through religious life and encourage them to pursue in the vocation to become priests, nuns, lay apostles and church leaders?

On a personal note, I will be on vacation from May 15th until June 20th to spend time with my family and friends in India. I will be back in time for the parish feast on Friday, June 23 as we are putting things together to make it a very special and a familial event. In my absence, you may contact the parish office for any sacramental emergency.

PRAYER FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

Heavenly Father, we worship you, our Creator. You have brought each of us into being because of your loving generosity. We ask that you protect us from the snares of the evil one, and the many temptations that surround us. Shield us from drugs and addictions, from self-indulgence and sin. Lead us in the path of True Love. Surround us with angels to guard, defend and guide us. Help us not to become lost. Grant that we may fulfill your plans and be led to lasting happiness. Amen.

--Kathy Ellis
