Rock of faith & Key to Kingdom

In the Biblical tradition, officials were invested with keys as sign of power, stewardship and authority. Peter, by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, was able to recognize and reveal the truth that Jesus was the Messiah. Playing the role of a leader among the Apostles, he paved the way for them, and us now, to know and come into contact with the Divine presence in us and in others which in itself is the key to the Kingdom of God.

Renaming a person is another tradition in the Bible which symbolizes commissioning the person with a new mission. Jesus’ blessing on Peter and giving him a meaningful name - “Rock”- indicate that God has taken hold/possession of him in a very special way and will commission him with a huge task. “Christian”, as St. Augustine said, “is not a mere name but a constant and tough challenge to live up to it”.

Denial and desertion of Jesus notwithstanding, Peter understood his mission well when he referred to himself in his epistle as “servant and apostle” (2 Pet 1:1) and advised everyone ‘to serve one another with whatever gift each one has received’ (1 Pet 4:10). May we stand on the rock-solid ground of faith and invite others to join hands so as to become faith-filled servants of God’s Kingdom!

Fr. Amal

OUR LADY OF KNOCK

Even after one hundred thirty-eight years the immensity of what happened at Knock, Ireland on the rainy evening of August 21, 1879 is not yet understood. Knock was a true theophany, a manifestation of Our Lord Jesus Christ in the image of the im-molated Lamb, surrounded by Angels, in the company of His Virgin Mother, of Saint Joseph, and of Saint John the Evange-list. The message of Knock is silence, and in that silence, a pro-found adoration.

--from The Litany of Knock

In adoration, O Lamb of God, I offer Thee the humility of Saint Joseph, the chaste protector and spouse of Thy most holy Virgin Mother; I offer Thee the silence of Saint Joseph; I offer Thee the purity of Saint Joseph; I offer Thee the obedience of Saint Joseph; I offer Thee the confidence of Saint Joseph; I offer Thee the fortitude of Saint Joseph; I offer Thee the prudence of Saint Joseph; I offer Thee the wisdom of Saint Joseph; I offer Thee his tenderness, his righteousness, and all the devotion of his prayer; I offer Thee the power of his supplication for us in heaven, and every manifestation of his fatherly care for the Church on earth.

The Many Colors of Grace

The liturgy of the Church makes a rich and varied use of color. The color of the stole, chasuble and dalmatic changes according to the feast and season. The tent-like veil covering the tabernacle may also change, following the same rules. The variety of liturgical colors signifies the different ways in which we are touched by the grace of Christ in the liturgy.

Violet or purple, signifying longing and penance, are used in Advent and Lent. Rose-colored vestments, a sign of anticipated joy, may be used on the Third Sunday of Advent and the Fourth Sunday of Lent. White, the color of purity and of glory, is used during Christmastide and Paschal tide, as well as on certain feasts of the Lord and on feasts of the Virgin Mary and many saints. Vestments of gold or silver cloth may be used on great solemnities. Green, symbolizing growth, fruitfulness, and hope, is worn on Sundays and weekdays during the Time Throughout the Year. Red, recalling the blood of Christ and of the martyrs, as well as the fire of the Holy Spirit, is worn on Passion Sunday, on Pentecost, for Masses of the Holy Spirit, on the feasts of the Holy Cross and of Apostles and martyrs. For Masses of the Dead and funerals, black, violet, or white vestments may be worn.

The association of colors with the various feasts, seasons, and mysteries of the Lord is part of our Catholic liturgical heritage. The Church, "in many-colored robes is led to the King" (cf. Psalm 44:12).
