The Transfiguration presents us with an impressive image of the glorified Christ. The place, images and the people involved in the event speak the truth more poignantly. While Jesus is transfigured to reveal His glory in a more spectacular way, the disciples are transformed in the understanding of their master, and also in the perception of their challenging mission that they are going to be entrusted with.

Life is full of ups and downs. One moment we gaze at God's glory, next, we see Him crucified. How often we crave for visions and voices, but all that we receive is shadows and silence. Walking into the shoes of the disciples, we get a glimpse of what life is, at times, and what it shall be as it comes with the greater responsibility to commit ourselves more fervently.

On the side, this is the 'Fair-week' that we have set all our eyes on, spent all our energies to make this event a BIG one for the parish in particular, and for the city in general. As all roads lead to the fairgrounds next week, may we use this great opportunity to strengthen the bond of unity and bear witness to the truth that we belong to one community, in line with the vision and mission of our Sacred Heart (Parish) Family! Wish everyone good luck, and have fun!

Fr. Amal

Sunday, the Day of the Lord

Sunday is the original festival, the weekly celebration of Christ's holy resurrection. Sunday is the day of the Eucharist, the day of the Church's joy, the day of beginning again in the grace of Him who says, "Behold, I make all things new" (Rev 21:5). The festivity of Sunday worship overflows into all of life. There is delight in the details: freshly polished shoes, "Sunday best" clothes, flowers and wine for the Sunday dinner table.

Allowing Sunday Mass to become one thing among others on a weekend checklist leads to a loss of "Eucharistic amazement." Holy Mass is Sunday's central event. All other things are arranged around it. The absolute priority given to Sunday Mass is an irreplaceable witness to the Kingdom of God.

The beauty of Sunday Mass is an offering to God and a healing for the soul. The singing of priest, deacon, cantor, and people, the use of incense and lights, the sacred movement of bodies in worship, vesture in the appointed liturgical colors, the clear sound of the bell, the flowers that delight the eye and perfume the air — all these good things proclaim the splendor of the Mystery of Faith, each in its own way.

In addition to Sunday Mass, following an impetus given by the Second Vatican Council, there are cathedrals and parish churches around the world where the faithful return for Vespers, the Church's solemn evening liturgy. The celebration of Vespers is often followed by a time of Eucharistic adoration. Having entered into Christ's sacrifice in the morning, the Church returns at sunset to contemplate the glory of his Face, praying, "Stay with us, for it is toward evening and the day is now far spent" (Lk 24:29).

CHURCH OFFICE HOURS

The office will be open from 9-12 on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday during the week of the Fair.

When you pray, you only have to ask for two things: You should ask for the light to see the will of God, and you have to ask for the courage to be able to do the will of God."
