

Sacred Heart Parish

We are a community of believers centered on the Eucharist, the Word of God and Catholic tradition. Together, we give witness to our faith through the Sacraments, good works of service and prayer.

Love is not jealous

Jesus' parable of "the hired workers in the vineyard" was given to his contemporaries as a foretaste of the gratuitousness of God's love. The parable is not simply about life, but about the kingdom of heaven. And God alone will decide who is to be honored in heaven. The grumblers actually contest not the land-owner's skewed sense of justice, but his astounding generosity.

God is truly a generous Parent to all people. However, as much as a family specially cares for, and fusses over, its handicapped, less-privileged members, so does God apply a 'principle of difference' in dealing with the disadvantaged and dispossessed of the kingdom. Logical though this may sound in theory, in some developed so-called 'Christian countries' for instance, there is a large section of citizens who resent and frown upon political and social concessions granted to those marginalized section of the one big family.

Let us critically examine our attitudes toward the less-privileged. Without judging or envying them, let us follow God's ways, not man's ways, for "Man's ways lead to a hopeless end, whereas God's ways lead to endless hope". Let us, therefore, be zealous in the outpouring of our love and mercy on the needy, and not become jealous of how good they are.

SACRED HEART PARISH YOUTH GROUP

The first meeting of the new parish Youth Group is Sunday October 8 at 1:30pm in the Parish Hall. The Youth Group is open to all young people in the 9th grade and older, whether Catholic, confirmed, or not! Come join us for fellowship and fun in a place you can learn about God, witness to your own faith, and see what the Lord has done for others in our town of Tillamook.

We invite parents to attend this first meeting as well. The parish will provide lunch, there is a very nice door prize, and we will be discussing and planning the future of the Sacred Heart Parish Youth Group.

In this life we shrink from knowing our real selves. We do not like to know how sinful we are. We love those who prophecy smooth things to us, and we are angry with those who tell us of our faults. But on that day, not one fault only, but all the secret, as well as evident, defects of our character will be clearly brought out. We shall see what we feared to see here, and much more. And then, when the full sight of ourselves comes to us, who will not wish that he had known more of himself here, rather than leaving it for the inevitable day to reveal it all to him! — Blessed John Henry Newman

A Place Where Beauty is at Home

In celebrating the Eucharist through the ages, the Church has felt the need to be “a place where beauty is at home.” The architecture of basilicas, cathedrals, and churches attests to something more than a concrete need for space and shelter. The altar is more than a table, the ambo more than a bookstand, and the tabernacle more than a cupboard. Our churches and their furnishings bear witness to the Mystery of Faith and to the “eucharistic amazement” that rises in the adoring heart. The beauty that is the work of human artisans raises the mind and heart to the Author of all beauty and, in some way, says, “Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right and just.” The humblest chapel and the poorest church becomes the theatre of a lavish love when Christians, seized by the gift of the Eucharist, seek to respond to it with the work of their hands. The cleanliness of the church, altar, sacred vessels, linens, and other appointments is a first and indispensable expression of grateful love for Christ. Architecture, sculpture, and painting not only express the Mystery; they impress it on our senses, and through the senses, on our souls. Candles and incense, flowers and fabrics are the outward signs of an inward awareness of what Christ the Bridegroom ceaselessly offers to his Bride the Church in the Sacrament of the Eucharist.
