Fig(urative) lesson!

Lent calls for a radical conversion to repent, return and reform ourselves so as to bear much fruits in our lives. Failure to bear fruits of repentance and conversion in spite of many opportunities given to us by God undoubtedly leads to disaster. Every chance has to be grabbed with both hands to mend our ways and start all over again. It is ultimately useless to hide behind the blame-game and escape from our own responsibility for evil in the world, when we might possibly have our hands into it.

Lent is certainly the best time to prune, dig, water, add manure and bear fruit in our lives. The ever faithful 'Gardener- Jesus' unfailingly nourishes us through the sacraments to produce fruits in abundance. The efficacy of those fruits, though freely-given and nurtured by the Heavenly Father, can never be taken for granted. Would that we all become bearing, not barren, trees!

During the third week of Lent, let us GIVE UP our worries and anxieties! Instead, let us trust God with them. Anxiety is spending emotional energy on something we can do nothing about: like tomorrow! Live today and let God's grace be sufficient!

Fr. Amal

Lección de higo!

La Cuaresma requiere una conversión radical para arrepentirnos, regresar y reformarnos para dar mucho fruto en nuestras vidas. El fracaso en dar frutos de arrepentimiento y conversión a pesar de las muchas oportunidades que Dios nos ha dado, sin duda nos lleva al desastre. Cada oportunidad tiene que ser aprovechada con ambas manos para reparar nuestros caminos y comenzar de nuevo. En última instancia, es inútil esconderse detrás del juego de la culpa y escapar de nuestra propia responsabilidad por el mal en el mundo, cuando es posible que tengamos nuestras manos en ello.

La Cuaresma es sin duda el mejor momento para podar, cavar, regar, agregar estiércol y dar frutos en nuestras vidas. El siempre fiel 'Jardinero- Jesús' nos alimenta infaliblemente a través de los sacramentos para producir frutos en abundancia. La eficacia de esos frutos, aunque los da libremente y los nutre el Padre Celestial, nunca puede darse por sentada. ¡Ojalá nos volviéramos árboles, no estériles!

Durante la tercera semana de Cuaresma, ¡Renunciemos a nuestras preocupaciones y ansiedades! En cambio, confiemos en Dios con ellos. La ansiedad es gastar energía emocional en algo sobre lo que no podemos hacer nada: ¡como mañana! ¡Vive hoy y deja que la gracia de Dios sea suficiente!

TRAINING FOR NEW ALTAR SERVERS

Saturday April 6 10:30am in the Admin Building
St. John Berchmans (1599-1621)
Patron Saint Of Altar Servers – Feast Nov 26

St. John was noted for his piety even from age 7, when he would rise very early in order to serve at two or even three Masses each day. On Fridays he would go barefoot to make the Stations of the Cross, not in a church, but outside.

He was well loved by all for his bright intellect and cheerful kindness. St. John entered the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits) at age 19. He died of a sudden fever when only 22 years old. He has left us this beautiful prayer for altar servers to say before Mass, but we all could benefit from learning and using it.

ENTRENAMIENTO PARA NUEVOS MONAGUILLOS

Sábado 6 de abril a las 10:30 am en el edificio de administración.
San Juan Berchmans (1599-1621)
Patrona de los Monaguillos - Fiesta el 26 de noviembre

San Juan se destacó por su piedad incluso desde los 7 años, cuando se levantaba muy temprano para servir en dos o incluso tres Misas cada día. Los viernes iba descalzo a hacer las Estaciones de la Cruz, no en una iglesia, sino afuera.

Fue bien amado por todos por su brillante intelecto y alegre amabilidad. San Juan ingresó en la Compañía de Jesús (los jesuitas) a la edad de 19 años. Murió de fiebre repentina cuando solo tenía 22 años. Nos ha dejado esta hermosa oración para que los demás servidores digan antes de la misa, pero todos podríamos beneficiarnos de aprender y usarla.
