Trinity – Being-in-Relationship

More than merely telling us about God, the Trinity provides a ‘social program’ for constructing communities in “God’s image and likeness”. We cannot imagine a God who does not live in relationship, to enter into a loving relationship with us. This mystery is very well related to and reflected in our families and communities.

St. Augustine spent 21 long years writing De Trinitate, his 15-book magnum opus on the Trinity. He summarized his reflection after such a long effort like this: “I believe that living faith, reflecting upon, praying to, and loving the Trinity entails a pilgrimage from head to heart, from God-in-Godself to God-in-creation”. It is a mystery not only to be meditated upon, but to be lived.

The early Church worshipped, blessed, baptized and sang hymns to the Trinity. They rejoiced that, in Jesus, and through the power of the Spirit, they were adopted as daughters and sons of God. Thus, the Trinity bids us not to try to condense God into any mathematical formulae but to love and live like the Trinity – one, yet three, united but different.

Fr. Amal

Trinidad - Ser-en-Relación

Más que simplemente decimos acerca de Dios, la Trinidad ofrece un "programa social" para construir comunidades a "imagen y semejanza de Dios". No podemos imaginar a un Dios que no vive en una relación, para entrar en una relación amorosa con nosotros. Este misterio está muy bien relacionado y reflejado en nuestras familias y comunidades.

San Agustín pasó 21 largos años escribiendo De Trinitate, su obra magna de 15 libros sobre la Trinidad. Resumió su reflexión después de un esfuerzo tan largo como este: "Creo que vivir la fe, reflexionar, orar y amar a la Trinidad implica una peregrinación de la cabeza al corazón, de Dios en Dios a Dios en la creación". Es un misterio no solo para ser meditado, sino para ser vivido.

La Iglesia primitiva adoró, bendijo, bautizó y cantó himnos a la Trinidad. Se regocijaron de que, en Jesús, y por el poder del Espíritu, fueron adoptados como hijas e hijos de Dios. Por lo tanto, la Trinidad nos pide que no tratemos de condensar a Dios en ninguna fórmula matemática, sino que amemos y vivamos como la Trinidad: uno, pero tres, unidos pero diferentes.

In November 2018 the Catholic bishops of the United States released a Pastoral Letter Against Racism called, Open Wide Our Hearts. The letter is a powerful invitation for all the people of God to “face courageously the vice of racism, . . . reach out generously to the victims of this evil, to assist the conversion needed in those who still harbor racism, and to begin to change policies and structures that allow racism to persist.” At usccb.org/racism, you can read the entire letter, get new resources and find ideas for how we can respond.

En noviembre de 2018, los obispos católicos de los Estados Unidos publicaron una carta pastoral contra el racismo llamada “Open Wide Our Hearts: (Abre Ancho Nuestros Corazones). La carta es una poderosa invitación para que todo el pueblo de Dios "enfrente con valentía el vicio del racismo". . . llegar generosamente a las víctimas de este mal, ayudar a la conversión necesaria en aquellos que aún albergan el racismo y comenzar a cambiar las políticas y estructuras que permiten que el racismo persista ". En usccb.org/racism, puede leer la carta completa, obtener nuevos recursos y encontrar ideas sobre cómo podemos responder.

God the Father, Creator. God the Holy Sanctifying Spirit, God Jesus Christ the Redeeming Son. The three Persons of the Holy Trinity are really different, although they are one true God. In God there is only one nature, one understanding and one will.
